

Quantum Ice guard®

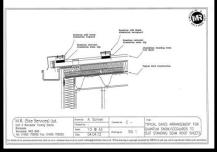

With weather conditions at extremes, recent years have seen ice sliding off roofs at an alarming rate.

This unique product is used where there is a danger from falling ice on to pedestrians below.

All Quantum roof access products are produced in accordance with BS EN ISO 9001:2015 Quality system and in conjunction with BS EN 1090 pt1

Product Information

Properties

Part of the Quantum Range is the Ice Guard system, this application is not necessarily used in conjunction with the Quantum Snow Guard, both systems work independently but to control Ice and Snow both products work in unison.

All aluminium product extruded in 6082T6 material

Certification

Manufactured in the UK & conforms to BSEN ISO 9001:2015 BS EN 1991-1-3:2003+A1:2015

BS EN 1090-1: 2009

Fully complies to CPA criteria/regulations for all our aluminium fabrications including roof access products, walkways etc.
Manufactured and supplied with full CE

Durability

Designed and manufactured specifically for commercial and industrial roofs, this low profile Ice Guard system is Resistant to dynamic and static loads.

Application

Ice guard is a non-penetrative solution to a potentially dangerous situation, is manufactured from 3mm thick mill finished aluminium supported and fixed with the Quantum seam clip the system is designed to attach to most roofing systems.

Clamping System

Designed to clamp on standing seam however many and various clips available for all systems

Quantum seam clamp