

Quantum Walksafe

Quantum Walksafe is a proven, all aluminium fully welded and walkway and fall restraint system. Manufactured in accordance with BSEN 516:2006, it attaches to a roofing system as 1 complete system alleviating the need for an independent wire system. This product allows specifiers to provide lightweight yet durable roof access for maintenance purposes on any roofing system. Each system is designed and tailor made to suit each project

Product Information

Quantum Walksafe is a registered and patented system with a unique design providing a comprehensive product which meets demands of designers and users of roof access systems.

Construction

Manufactured to and fully tested to BS EN 516: 2006, (Prefabricated accessories for Roofing — Installations for roof access — Walkways, treads and Steps) and CE marked

Quality

Quality and manufacturing controls in accordance with ISO 9001:2015 Quality System.

Components

All welded joints carried out by fully trained coded, competent welders using the T.I.G. weld process, all details available on request

Constructed from extruded closed section 6082-T6 aluminium and aluminium tube.

Vertical supports are constructed from 50mm diameter extruded aluminium.

Fixing

Fixing to be carried out by trained company personal following the details as drawn and passed by the clients representatives

Durability

Strong and lightweight.
Corrosion-free

Dimensions

All manufacturing in accordance with BSEN 516:2006. Will be custom-made to fit individual requirements

Maintenance

An annual inspection and certification is offered. A full maintenance schedule is available on request.

Documentation

O&M manuals produced with each system

Contact a member of our team for more comprehensive information on this product